

A family gathering filled with laughter, loteria, and refreshing horchata reminiscent of childhood.

INSTRUMENTAL OF "SABOR A MI" PLAYS. IT'S THE 90'S IN THE BACKYARD OF A MEXICAN FAMILY HAVING A CARNE ASADA. WE SEE KIDS PLAYING LOTERIA AS A WOMAN WALKS TOWARDS THEM.

TÍA: ¿Quién quiere horchata? *In subtitles: Who wants horchata?

KIDS: (screaming in unison) Yo, yo quiero!
Subtitle: Me, I want some!

TÍA: (smiling and laughing) A bueno pero esperenme uno por uno *Subtitle: Okay but let's do one by one

THE TÍA SERVES THE KIDS HORCHATA AS THEY KEEP PLAYING THEIR GAME OF LOTERIA

KID: (raises his horchata in the air and screams) Loteria!

THE SCENE TAKES US BACK TO PRESENT DAY WHERE THE KID NOW GROWN UP IS HOLDING HIS HORCHATA FROM COCOANDRE AND SMILING AT IT.

NARRATOR: Even as memories seem lost in the past, that taste of joy always lingers.

THE MAN WALKS OUT OF COCOANDRE AND WE HEAR THE SONG LYRICS "SABOR A MI"

SUPER: CocoAndré, Sabor a Home
